

Complicated...but we do have the Know-How!

IRAQ

Especially for project cargo to IRAQ is the selection of the suitable transport mode a challenge for every freight forwarder. The location and the size of the country opens transport possibilities by land, by sea and also combined alternatives. Based on the requirements like transit time, transport costs, transshipment clauses, security and of course letter of credit and customer specifications, we chose the most suitable transport route.
